

Domestic and Aboriginal Family Violence Seminar

Saturday, 21 October 2017
Institute Theatre, Port Augusta

Learning Outcomes:

At the end of the workshop, GPs will be able to:

- Describe how to respond to disclosure of family violence
- Assess risk in situations of family violence
- Respond appropriately in relation to mandatory reporting
- Recognise the specific issues that are evident in Indigenous families
- Describe the role of SAPOL in situations of family violence
- Describe how to engage with men to address violence

8.30am	Registration
9.00am	Introduction and welcome
9.10am	Context – the big picture of the situation in South Australia Vicky Welgraven, Adnyamathanha Woman, Advocate for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Women's Rights and Issues
9.25am	Personal Perspective – Living with Family Violence Husband and Wife speak about past experience
9.45am	The General Practitioner Perspective Dr Julia Vnuk, Women's Health Medical Officer- Pika Wiya Health Service Aboriginal Corporation
10.30am	Morning Tea
10.45am	Responding to Women presenting at hospital Dr Amanda Bethell, GP Specialist and Emergency Department Doctor- Port Augusta Hospital
11.30am	The Risk Assessment Tool and Family Safety Framework Hayley Theile, Victim Support Coordinator- Victim support Service
12.30pm	Lunch
1.00pm	Role of SAPOL in Family Violence Representative of SAPOL- TBA
1.45pm	Working with Male Perpetrators in Addressing Violence and Abuse Gary Wright, Mental Health Social Worker

2.30pm	Afternoon Tea
2.45pm	Panel – Support and Referral Services Katrina Almond, Manager Port Augusta Regional DV & AFV Service- Uniting Care Wesley, Hayley Theile, Victim Support Coordinator- Victim support Service, Zita Adut Deng Ngor, CEO Women’s Legal Service SA Inc
3.30pm	Q & A and Open Discussion
4.00pm	Evaluation and Close