

sapmea
where knowledge + health meet

Clinical Management of Emergency Respiratory Conditions

Tuesday, 18 October 2016

6.00-8.30pm

Novotel Barossa Valley
Golf Links Road, Rowland Flat

Learning Outcomes

Describe how to diagnose and manage spontaneous pneumothorax including referral pathways.

Discuss the clinical management of the elderly patient who presents with pneumonia to ensure patient safety.

Describe the importance of end of life discussions with the patient who has chronic respiratory disease.

List the signs and symptoms and describe the management of unexplained shortness of breath.

Presented by

Dr Cynthia Papendick

Emergency Physician (RAH)

and

Prof Hubertus Jersmann

Respiratory & Sleep Physician (RAH)

Visit www.sapmea.asn.au to register or call sapmea on 08 8274 6060

No cost to attend
Dinner provided*

Approved for 4 category 2 points with RACGP and 2 core points with ACRRM

phn
COUNTRY SA

An Australian Government Initiative

Country SA PHN funds sapmea to provide education to general practice and service providers in recognition of their role in providing quality healthcare*

Supported by...

AstraZeneca