

“LET’S HAVE A HEART-TO-HEART”
An update on Heart Failure & Pulmonary Hypertension in General Practice

Tuesday, 31
July 2018

6.00-8.30pm
Cove Civic Centre
Hallett Cove

No cost to attend
Dinner Provided

Learning Outcomes

- Recognise the characteristics of heart failure or pulmonary hypertension
- Discuss the evidence based investigations for heart failure or pulmonary hypertension
- Discuss the issues related to the delayed diagnosis of pulmonary hypertension
- Describe the latest available pharmaceutical therapies and surgical treatments for heart failure
- Identify the most appropriate referral pathways for patients with heart failure or pulmonary hypertension to ensure patient safety

Presented by

Dr Michael Stokes

MBBS, FRACP, PhD candidate
University of Adelaide, SA

Cardiologist

*Approved for 4 Category 2 points with RACGP, activity#135355.
ACRRM points pending.*

