

Domestic and Aboriginal Family Violence Seminar

to be held at Adelaide Pavilion on Saturday September 17th 2016

Learning Outcomes:

At the end of the workshop, GPs will be able to:

- Describe how to respond to disclosure of family violence
- Assess risk in situations of family violence
- Respond appropriately in relation to mandatory reporting
- Recognise the specific issues that are evident in Indigenous families
- Describe the role of SAPOL in situations of family violence
- Describe how to engage with men to address violence

9.00am	Introduction and welcome Dr Janice Fletcher, President, AMA(SA)
9.10am	Context – the big picture of the situation in South Australia - statistics and experience in the Aboriginal communities Hon Zoe Bettison, MP Dr Maureen Gallagher – chair for the day
9.30am	Personal Perspective – Living with Family Violence Speaker – Woman who has experienced Family Violence
9.50am	The General Practitioner Perspective Dr Jenny Gunn, GP
10.30am	Morning Tea
10.45am	Recognising Family Violence in General Practice Dr Vicki Jones, Yarrow Place Including role play and case studies Small group work
12.30pm	Lunch
1.00pm	Risk Assessment – including Mandatory Reporting Ms Kristina Birchmore, Manager – Women's Safety Strategy - including two case studies – Indigenous and other - GPs to complete the Risk Assessment tool

2.00pm	Safety Planning Ms Pip Gaffney – Women's Health Service, Team Leader Social Work including small group work
2.30pm	Role of SAPOL in Family Violence Senior Sergeant Sharon Walker-Roberts, SAPOL
3.00pm	Engaging Men to Address Violence and Abuse Mr Robert Hall, Social Worker, NADA Interactive session
3.30pm	Panel – Questions from Predisposing Activity Panel – to be chaired by Dr Maureen Gallagher
4.00pm	Evaluation and Close

Supported by

An Australian Government Initiative