

“BOOBS, BABES, BITS & BOBS”

The latest in Women’s Health

Saturday, 28
October 2017

8.30am – 4.30pm

Lion Hotel, North Adelaide

No cost to attend
Full day catering provided

An interactive, full day workshop covering the latest in Women’s Health; including Vulval Skin Conditions, Cervical Screening, Abnormal Pap Smears, Breast Feeding, Incontinence, Preconception Care for Patients with Type 2 Diabetes and Gestational Diabetes.

Presented by

Dr Ann Olsson
Gynaecologist

Dr Moira McCaul
GP Specialist and Lactation Consultant

Dr Samantha Pillay
Urologist

Dr Shantha Joseph
Endocrinologist

Dr Bill Jeffries
Endocrinologist

Learning Outcomes

- Identify the physiological issues and management associated with preconception and gestational diabetes
- Outline the renewed cervical screening program and the referral pathways for abnormal pap smear results to ensure patient safety
- Describe the different treatments including surgical and non-surgical options for women experiencing incontinence
- Summarise the common problems associated with breast feeding and their management
- Diagnose and manage common Vulval skin conditions such as Dermatitis and Lichen Sclerosus

Category 1 points with RACGP and ACRRM points pending

